FAMILY SUPPORT PROGRAM

Under the Family Support Act eligible families/individuals must fall within the definition of family, including the definition of a family member with a severe disability. The individual with a severe disability must be residing in the community in an unsupported setting. Many families may be eligible for the Family Support Program, but may not actually receive services, based on funds available, selection criteria, and other factors.

Services are designed to be flexible and responsive to family needs. Funding for services might include but is not limited to: respite care, day care, home and vehicular modifications, specialized equipment & repair/maintenance, specialized nutrition/clothing/supplies, personal assistance, transportation, homemaker services, housing costs, health related, nursing/nurses aide, family counseling, recreation/summer camp, evaluation, and training.
